VANIJYA PARISHAD

ANNUAL REPORTS
2018-19 TO 2022-23

INTRODUCTION

Vanijya parishad, the commerce society at Laxminarayan College, Jharsuguda came into existence with the inception of the College in 1969.

The aim of parishad is to provide students practical exposure to business world during learning period.

It constitutes all the members of Department of commerce- faculty, students and alumni.

The Parishad has been, since its inception, organizing various activities in the field of commerce and business to provide a platform to the students to hone their skills. This provides students with the opportunities to explore subjects beyond the classroom. This has been helping a lot in developing their communication skill, boosting their confidence and increasing their motivational levels, creating well rounded individuals and making them great team players.
